

CIVIL & DOMESTIC RELATIONS CME AND CLE SEMINARS IN FORT WAYNE

FRIDAY DEC. 8, 2017

2 CME/CLE “ELDER CLIENTS, LAW & MEDIATION” (10-NOON) Janet Mitchell, Michael Rosswurm, Emily Cook, and Marylyn Ernsberger, Elder Mediators – How do mediators work with adult siblings and their aging parents? What mediation models work best? What are the ethical considerations? Mediation participants may discuss should Dad be driving, can we keep Mom in the home if we work together, how can we divide up the farm or estate, and how can we work with family members who are fighting?

2 CME/CLE* “MEDIATION RULE CHANGES DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ASSESSMENT” (1-3) Angenetta Briner and Janet Mitchell - How can mediators comply with ADR Rule 2’s requirement to assess the risk of domestic violence in divorce mediation? Are there specific questions to ask and tools to use? What procedures do mediators need to follow to make mediation safe?

2 CME/CLE* “BOWEN FAMILY SYSTEMS THEORY FOR MEDIATORS” (3:15-5:15) Teresa M. Walters, LMFT, LAC, PC, NCPC, DTM - A Primer for Mediators in Bowen Family Systems Theory and Differentiation of Self - avoid getting pulled into the emotional vortex of relational conflict by understanding family systems.

Seminar Location: Hampton Inn, 3520 E. Dupont Rd., Ft. Wayne, 260.483.3999 (Southeast corner of Dupont and I-69 Exit 316 behind Culver's).

Accreditation: The seminars are approved for continuing mediation education (CME) credit by the Indiana Commission for Continuing Legal Education for civil and domestic relations mediators, and for CLE credit for Seminar #1. *CLE for Seminars #2 and #3 will be submitted as non-legal subject area CLE hours (maximum 12 hours per 3-year reporting). NASWIN has approved the seminars for 2, 4, or 6 Continuing Education Hours for Social Work, LSW, LCSW, LMFT, LMHC, LAC, LCAC & Psychologists.
